

A LITTLE BIT OF CULTURE

*Visit the gardens of Château de Canon
in Mézidon-Canon*

Over 15 hectares, they reveal the art of gardening as practised in the 18th century. A clever combination of views, ordered in the French style and in a (falsely) wild state as we liked it in England. All of it, complete with a large reflecting pool, river, canals, waterfalls and small bridges.

Besides the paths lined with spectacular oriental plane trees, we admire here the visions that make the walk delightful, a Chinese kiosk, a small neoclassical temple where swans and visitors take a break.
